

Mechanical Engineer – Fabricator - Job Specification

The Role

Responsible for the manufacture, installation, and maintenance of high-quality products; ensuring that goods and services are delivered efficiently and effectively to our customers.

- Primarily based at our premises in Dalston, but with site work on Customer plants throughout the UK and Europe
- Full time, permanent, 40 hours per week with overtime regularly available at premium rates
- Salary dependent on skills and experience

Essential attributes

- Experience working with sheet metal, primarily stainless steel
- Good verbal and written communication skills
- The ability to work independently and as part of our team
- A positive and flexible approach to working

Desirable attributes

- Experience working in the food and beverage industry

Main responsibilities

- Apply knowledge and experience to perform required tasks efficiently, whilst following Health and Safety regulations and safe systems of work to ensure your safety and the safety of others.
- Apply knowledge and experience to provide training and guidance to apprentices and co-workers.
- Set up and operate metal working machinery including but not exclusive to; welding machines, press brakes, rollers, guillotines, profile cutters, grinders, pedestal drills, to bend, cut, form, punch, drill, weld and assemble metal components.
- Manufacture products within set tolerances to a high standard, following engineering drawings and current company policies and procedures.
- Follow current company procedures to effectively track and manage time, materials and consumables.
- Work independently to measure, design and draw items for manufacture.
- Represent the business in a customer facing role, demonstrating competence and professionalism.
- Provide mechanical maintenance services that meet our customers' requirements in terms of Health & Safety, plant protection, hygiene and production schedules for customers in the UK and overseas.